

Application for membership of the Cruising Association

The Cruising Association complies fully with the relevant data protection legislation (from May 25, 2018 the General Data Protection Regulation [GDPR]). We ask you for the information we need to manage your membership (to know who you are; your payment details; and how to contact you). We also invite you to share personal information which can enhance your membership/contribution (your boat details, your cruising ground, which sections you wish to join; plus any skills or previous experience you might be able to offer us).

Full information about your rights, our obligations, and the way we look after your personal information can be found on our website: www.theca.org.uk/privacy. We are registered as the data controller with the Information Commissioner's Office: ico.org.uk. – 13 May 2018

Membership fees Please tick your required membership. Boxes with a solid red border are for required information. A second, household member may be included without charge.

Sharing contact information:

Members are encouraged to share the following contact details to promote contact between members: Name; telephone numbers; email address.

Holding and sharing boat details:

Members are encouraged to enable the CA to hold and share the following details of their boat ownership: Boat name, home port, class, rig, length.

Volunteering:

Members who fill voluntary roles within the Cruising Association may need to share some contact information in order to fulfil those roles.

Giving your consent will mean that your contact details and boat details, as noted above, will be shared with other members and Honorary Local Representatives via the Cruising Association website, on enquiry to the office, being published in the Cruising Association Yearbook and via the CAptains Mate app. As the Cruising Association has members worldwide this will mean that your contact details and boat details will be made available in countries that do not have the same standard of data protection as required in the United Kingdom.
