

GO AFFORDABLE BOATING SEMINAR

Sailing on a shoestring

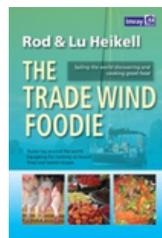

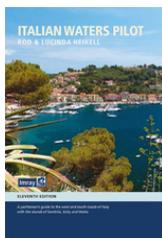

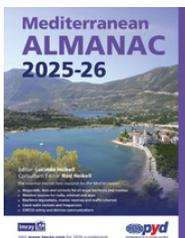

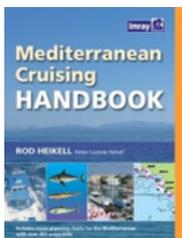

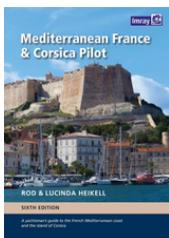

Lu introduced her 'SWAMP' approach to affordable cruising: Shopping, Weather, Anchoring, Maintenance and Planning. With a focus on cruising in the Mediterranean, Lu's video presentation was packed with practical strategies and clever cost-saving tactics, demonstrating how thoughtful preparation could dramatically reduce cruising costs without diminishing the adventure.

Speaker: CA member Lu Heikell, co-author of pilot guides and Yachting Monthly columnist

Lu grew up in the west country and gained a love of cruising and dinghy sailing from her father, Peter. She met her husband Rod when she joined him as crew on a trip from the Azores to Gibraltar in 1999. Many sea miles, including a circumnavigation later, she and Rod have lived, loved, and worked together for more than twenty-five years and split their time between the Isle of Wight and Greece when not on their beloved yacht Skylax. Alongside Rod, Lu is co-author of several pilot guides including Greek Waters Pilot, edits the Imray-Tetra chart series, and is a regular columnist in Yachting Monthly.
