Host boat High Barbaree

High Water Portsmouth - Sat 14 October 2007 BST Sun 15 October 0854BST

DETAILS OF OUR MEET

The fact that Gins Farm was billed as the last summer meet does not preclude another taking place in the autumn so here's an opportunity to get together somewhere we haven't been to for a while before the evenings get too short and, for those who don't go in for winter cruising, it's time to think of laying-up.

Gosport Marina is probably the most convenient for taking the ferry to Portsmouth if a visit to the Historic Dockyard or Gunwharf Quays takes your fancy. On the Gosport side the Submarine Museum is well worth a visit, if a little further to walk, but to make either worthwhile will probably require arriving on the Friday evening or staying on on Sunday unless you are based locally.

Weather permitting we shall gather on High Barbaree and/or the adjacent pontoon for a glass of wine from 1800 on the Saturday evening, and then migrate to the Boat House Café for a meal at around 1900. Menu options will be circulated to those registering to attend. The cost for a three-course meal is expected to be in the region of £25, and we will make any necessary adjustments on the day.

Before entering the marina call "Gosport Marina" on Channel 80 for instructions and say you are part of the Cruising Association Rally.

NB Mooring fees and electricity are the responsibility of each skipper.

Our mobile is 07889049801 in case of hold-up, but please come and say hello on arrival.
