A Cruising Association BlueWater Section Rendezvous at

CA House on Sunday 1st September

TWO Presentations

With a buffet lunch in between : your day will start from 10:30

Morning Presentation: 'Around the Atlantic in a Year' by Richard & Alison Rowley

Alison & Richard arrived back from their 12 month trip in the middle of June this year so all is still very fresh.

During the talk they will outline their:

- Preparation of ourselves and the boat – 2 years of hard work
- Benefits and drawbacks of taking part in a rally
- Passage making vs cruising – sailing to a schedule
- Setting free and sailing on our own
- Coming home – the return passage

Afternoon Presentation: by Jane and Ivan Chevous

'Sailing Pacific Central America & Transit Panama without an Agent'

Now liveaboards, Jane & Ivan spent 7yrs of holidays fitting out Chantey in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico and then sailed the Central American coast for several years before transiting the Panama Canal from W-E earlier this year so are well qualified to speak on the subjects and the information is bang up-to-date.

- Pacific Central America Sailing: Cruising the forgotten middle – highlights of a cruise in the Gulf of California and down the Pacific Coast of Central America to Panama. Including favourite anchorages / places to visit / hurricane season tips / why we love Central American people
- Panama Canal: latest requirements / helpful websites / line handlers etc
