

BALTIC SEMINAR

Saturday 18th February 2012

At CA House, 1 Northey Street, Limehouse Basin, London E14 8BT

Take the opportunity to find out all you need to know to sail the Baltic - a must if you are making your first journey to the Baltic or intending to explore further. Come along and meet those already sailing the area and let them share their knowledge and experiences with you.

The day's programme commences with Registration at 1030 (tea/coffee available) and includes the following (for which a precise timetable will be available nearer the time):-

Presentations on: Baltic Cruising Information
Routes to the Baltic
Overwintering

Country specific stalls and bring and buy sale - an opportunity to buy charts, pilots etc

Lunch will be served in the Council Room between 1300 and 1400

The bar will be open throughout the day for the purchase of alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks and will also be open into the evening when hot meals can be purchased. (If anyone is planning to stay on into the evening and requires a meal, please let the organisers know in advance to enable the caterers to plan for expected numbers). Please note that the evening meal is not included in the admission charge and must be paid for at the bar on the day.

For CA members wishing to combine attending the Seminar with their own cruise planning, the Library will be open throughout the day.

Admission including tea/coffee at reception and a snack lunch: CA members £14. Non-members £30 (the non-member portion of the charge will be refunded to anyone joining CA on the day).
