Welcome to the Midlands Section

We can't boast golden beaches and naval traditions, but there are some 200 members of the CA who live in the English Midlands. In between those golden memorable moments of offshore cruising, we have boats to maintain, information to share and social contacts. If you can't make it to the sea every week, then at least the sight of moorings full of sailing boats on an expansive and beautiful lake is a good second option. With over 100 cruiser sailers in our host club, we have a social base you are very welcome to join.

Where we meet

We are based at Rutland Sailing Club (RSC), an RYA affiliated club and training centre with over 1000 members. It is a national centre for inland sailing sited on Rutland Water, one of Europe's largest man-made lakes. Take a quick look here www.rutlandsailingclub.co.uk

Our Section is hosted by the RSC Cruiser Fleet which itself has over 100 members with sailing cruisers on the lake, and many with offshore sailing interests.

Being part of the Midlands Section

If you live in the Midlands area (and many of you do!), you will find our location on Rutland Water quite accessible. The RSC Cruiser fleet is active on the water from April to November, and has talks and social events through the Winter and Spring which CA Midlands Section members are welcome to join in with. Rutland SC offers a range of RYA training courses throughout the year.
