

SAILING RALLIES

Transatlantic Forum

Saturday 11th May & Sunday 12th May 2013

An informative & fun weekend covering preparation, planning and what you are likely to experience during an Atlantic crossing.

Whether you are planning to sail the Atlantic this year, next year or if you have only just started dreaming about it – the Transatlantic Forum held in London will provide expert advice and plenty of hints and tips to make your trip a success.

There will be a wide range of useful topics – all relevant to those embarking on a long ocean passage.

Sessions will be presented by hands on experienced ocean sailors and will include:

- Buying a blue water cruiser
- Down wind sailing
- Autohelms & self steering gear
- Power Management
- Weather & routing
- Safety equipment for an ocean passage
- Provisioning, stowage and cooking at sea
- Crew dynamics – how to keep a happy crew on a long passage
- Cruising the Canary Islands
- What to expect when you arrive in the Caribbean

The forum will showcase the Christmas Caribbean Rally and a variety of speakers, all of whom are experienced ocean sailors, eager to share their in-depth knowledge & experience.

Including: Jane Russell – author of ‘The Atlantic Crossing Guide’, weather forecaster and routing specialist, Mike Broughton MD of Winningwind.com and John Simpson, Managing Director of Sailing Rallies.

Price:

- £75 for the whole weekend, or £50 per day
- £50 for CA, OCC or RSYC members for the whole weekend or £35 per day
- Free for CCR participants

Morning coffee, light buffet lunch, afternoon tea with cake included on both days.

Venue: CA House, 1 Northey Street, Limehouse Basin, London E14 8BT.
